Dear President, caro Filippo,

I am very grateful that you have addressed the current Covid-19-crisis in your letter which has just been distributed to the presidents of all ACA-Europe members. We are all strongly affected by the current situation. And of course our hearts and thoughts are especially with your home country which has had to suffer tremendously.

I absolutely agree that this is a moment in which Europe has to prove that it is willing and capable to overcome the crisis as a union, that it will stand together and does not fall back into national egoisms. I am still confident that we will succeed in surmounting the health threats and in holding together as European neighbours and friends.

I am wishing you, your colleagues at the Council of State and your families all the best in these difficult times.

Sincerely yours

Klaus Rennert
